Frye & Wolcott, CPAs (F&W) is a team of highly competent financial professionals serving growing businesses and their owners, government contractors and agencies, and not-for-profit organizations. At F&W our firm motto is: "Delivering clarity to your finances and taxes."

F&W is strategically organized into two main types of services, Assurance and Advisory Services. Our professionals are cross-trained to provide both accounting and tax support. We are a full-service firm offering first-class audit, accounting and advisory services. Our firm strives for the highest ethical and professional standards within our profession. These principles permeate our firm and are presented to clients in every proposal and used internally to assess our performance.

Our sole purpose is to assist our clients through financial obstacles by providing clarity to complex financial and tax issues. We take time to get to know our clients and understand how they measure success. We believe that face-to-face meetings are essential for effective client relationships and are the most effective means to gain insight into our clients' operations. F&W works with your staff to meet your organization's financial goals and objectives. We provide our clients with an independent assessment of their operations and organizational structures.

We are poised and ready to work for your organization and are proficient with new accounting and auditing standards, tax regulations, and current financial trends. Our professionals each have over fifteen years of experience with such organizations as the Naval Audit Service, BoozAllenHamilton, the prestigious consulting firm, the Association Services Group (ASG), and several regional accounting firms, including Johnson Lambert & Company and Feddeman & Company. Our professionals also hold other certifications, such as Certified Government Financial Manager (CGFM) and Certified Valuation Analyst (CVA).

Additionally, our involvement in local chambers of commerce, not-for-profit organizations and local charities demonstrates our sincerity and dedication to serve others.
